Half Moon Cay, Bahamas

The Caribbean is full of tropical wonders. But there's nothing like Half Moon Cay, Holland America Line's 2,400-acre private island paradise in the Bahamas. The most authentic, highest-rated private-island experience in the region. Uncrowded and unspoiled, it combines the unparalleled natural beauty of a protected preserve with access to a wide range of amenities and activities. With miles of pristine, white-sand beach, guests can stay busy all day or simply luxuriate in tranquil solitude.

Oranjestad, Aruba

Located off the coast of Venezuela, the windswept Dutch island of Aruba is otherworldly. The beaches are spectacularly pristine, the waters are romantically restless, the island interior is lunar-like and filled with cacti, and the trees are bent in the wind. The main port and capital city, Oranjestad, is a maze of Dutch-colonial architecture painted in a palette of Caribbean pastels. There are some historic sites of note in Oranjestad and along the beaches you'll also find a treasure trove of excellent seafood restaurants, while farther afield are lighthouses, gold mine ruins and natural wonders that reflect the rugged appeal of Aruba.

Willemstad, Curacao

The capital of Curaçao, Willemstad, founded in 1634, remains a part of the Netherlands to this day. Its historic center is a unique mixture of Dutch architecture and Caribbean pastels, its gabled row houses overlooking Saint Anna Bay, a waterway dividing the city in two and connecting the Caribbean to the protected Schottegat Bay. The entire historic center of Willemstad has been recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Highlights of this multicultural melting pot might include a stop at its floating market and a visit to a curaçao distillery to taste the famous local liqueur.

Panama Canal/Gatun Lake, Panama

At the center of one of the world's greatest engineering projects is a place where nature has been given a space to flourish—the vast Gatún Lake. The lake includes some 20 miles of the 48-mile route that ships follow through the Panama Canal. It was formed in 1912, with the damming of the Chagres River, and the islands that dot the lake were once the peaks of hills. In addition to opportunities to see the infrastructure of the canal, Gatún Lake is fascinating for its remarkable biodiversity. More than 100 species each of mammals and reptiles, as well as some 500 different birds, thrive in the nature reserves in and near the lake.

Colon, Panama

Colon lies on the stunning Caribbean coast of Panama with unparalleled beaches and lush tropical scenery. In nearby Portobello, discover the ruins of Spanish forts, watch the colorful yachts sailing in the bay or hunt for treasures in the local markets.

Puerto Limón, Costa Rica

Puerto Limón, a coastal town in Costa Rica, is a perfect base from which to explore an attraction and activity rich region that can fulfill a variety of interests including a rain forest or outdoor adventure. There are treetops for zip lining and rushing rivers for whitewater rafting, and animal lovers can take sanctuary tours in and around Puerto Limón.
