The Monroe County Fine Arts Center proudly presents The Lettermen on March 1st. With hits such as "When I Fall in Love", "Goin' Out of My Head" and "Hurt So Bad", The Lettermen has been named the most romantic group of the sixties. The trio has performed on bills with Bing Crosby, Frank Sinatra, Jackie Gleason, Jerry Lewis, Dean Martin, Debbie Reynolds, Sam Cooke, and Sammy Davis, Jr.. They have appeared on "the Johnny Carson television show," several times on "The Ed Sullivan Show," and were regulars on "The Red Skelton Show" and "The Hollywood Palace." The Lettermen continue to release albums and travel the world, performing hundreds of concerts each year and wowing fans with their astounding harmonies and lyrics of love.
