Panama Canal Sunfarer Holland America M/S Eurodam January 26 – February 5, 2020

We hope this trip will strike one off your bucket list! Even if you have previously visited the Panama Canal, this itinerary is magnificent. You will visit exotic ports in the Caribbean, Central America and highlighted by a voyage into the Panama Canal. The cruise departs from Port Everglades in Ft. Lauderdale, FL on a 10-night/11-day cruise aboard one of Holland America's Signature Line cruise ships, M/S Eurodam. The journey begins with a day on Holland America's private island, Half Moon Cay, before making stops in Oranjestad, Aruba and Willemstad, Curacao (Dutch Antilles). Then on the seventh day you will enter the Panama Canal at Cristobal, Panama, then a partial transit through the Panama Canal and a morning cruise to Gatun Lake. That afternoon you will return on a partial Panama Canal transit, and stop at the port of Colon, Panama. The following day you will have a day in Puerto Limon (San Jose), Costa Rica before returning to Ft. Lauderdale. M/S Eurodam is filled with entertainment that will enhance your days at sea, including elegant jewelry boutiques, new atrium bar area, theatre, a casino, America's Test Kitchen, Greenhouse Spa & Salon, BBC Earth Experiences, stage performance, various lounges and a Piano Bar.

Cat. L (inside): $2899/person double; Cat. F (ocean view): $3199/person double; Cat. V (balcony): $3899/person double; Third/Fourth passengers/Single Rate & Upgrades Upon Request; $600 Deposit due now; Final Payment due no later than October 15, 2019. The price includes round trip airfare from ATL Airport. This improves the trip by eliminating the long motor coach ride to Ft. Lauderdale and an additional day of traveling. It also includes round trip transfers from Milledgeville to Atlanta airport, all government taxes, port charges, air taxes, and airport to ship/ship to airport round trip transfers.
